The machine will be ready to be used again in a second. The OptiFresh also indicates when the drip tray or litter bin is full and has a automatic cleaning program and descale indicator.

The maintenance keys are visible at the other side of the door and offer a wide range of settings. New recipes and settings can be implemented by using an SD card and can be copied to other machines. The operator himself can adjust standard settings, such as the strength of the coffee. Every machine has a consumption registration and a time switch to ensure that the machine switches to a low-energy mode outside office hours.

Brewing unit

It is no coincidence that the Animo OptiFresh sets a delicious cup of fresh brewed coffee. It is not just the coffee that affects the taste. The OptiFresh preparation system is a technique that ensures the taste of your coffee is the best you can get.

The brewing unit uses a permanent filter instead of a paper filter. This means that no disposable filter roll is necessary, making regular filling and waste removal unnecessary. The permanent filter can be easily removed and cleaned. A modern solution for a fresh brewed cup of coffee!
